SEEK

health and avoid sickness. Instead of feeling tired and worn out, instead of aches and pains, wouldn't you rather feel fresh and strong?

You can continue feeling miserable and good for nothing, and no one but yourself can find fault, but if you are tired of that kind of life, you can change it if you choose.

How? By getting one bottle of Brown's Iron Bitters, and taking it regularly according to directions.

Mansfield, Ohio, Nov. 26, 1881.

Gentlemen:—I have suffered with pain in my side and back, and great weakness on my breast, with shooting pains all through my body, attended with great weakness, depression of spirits and loss of appetite. I have taken several different medicines, and was treated by prominent physicians for my liver, kidneys, and spleen, but I got no relief. I thought I would try Brown's Iron Bitters. I have now taken one bottle and a half and am about well—pain in side and back all gone—strength all out of my breast, and I have a good appetite, and am gaining in strength and flesh. It can justly be called the king of medicines.

JOHN K. ALLEN.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS is composed of Iron in soluble form; Cinchona the great tonic, together with other standard remedies, making a remarkable non-alcoholic tonic, which will cure Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Malaria, Weakness, and relieve all Lung and Kidney diseases.

TUTT'S PILLS

TORPID BOWELS, DISORDERED LIVER, and MALARIA.

From these sources arise three-fourths of the diseases of the human race. These symptoms indicate their existence: Loss of Appetite, Bloating, Constipation, Sick Headache, Nervousness, Irritability, Aversion to exertion of body or mind, Irritation of the bowels, and a feeling of having neglected some duty. Disasters, Plastering at the Head, Dizziness, the eyes, highly colored urine, COUGHS, BRONCHITIS, and the use of a remedy that acts directly on the Liver. As a Liver medicine, TUTT'S PILLS have no equal. Their action on the kidneys and skin is also prompt; removing all impurities through these organs. They produce a healthy, regular stool, a clear skin and a vigorous body. TUTT'S PILLS can be used as a purgative, or as a tonic, or as a remedy for indigestion, or as a remedy for the kidneys and skin. They are a perfect ANTIDOTE TO MALARIA.

Swindlers and Their Victims—

How Careless People Suffer in Health and Pocket.

Every streak of sunshine creates a shadow, and behind every bright croche is a corresponding lie. Who does not have been in some way fooled and robbed by swindlers and their works has had better luck in life than most mortals. In fact the best witnesses to the value of a given article are the counterfeiters and imitations which seek to share its success without possessing a fraction of its merit. Hence it goes without saying that BENSON'S CAPSINE POROUS PLASTER. Are pursued by a host of miserable and worthless imitations, eager to appropriate what they can of the fruits of its victories. These leeches commonly take the form of a cheap plaster.

Now, these worthless and harmless plasters would be detected in a minute if people were careful in reading and remembering names. But most persons merely glance at them, understand partially and forget instantly. What result? This: Desiring to buy BENSON'S CAPSINE POROUS PLASTER, their own carelessness enables some storekeeper or druggist, who cares more for five or ten cents additional profit than for the sweets of an approving conscience, to roll them up instead some cheap imitation with a similar name. The deceit often works, while the fraudulent plasters never do. Don't permit yourself to be thus victimized for lack of a moment's care. BENSON'S CAPSINE POROUS PLASTER have stood the test of science and experience and are the product of both. Examine the article and satisfy yourself that the word CAPSINE is cut in it. IT PRESERVES YOUR BUTTER COOL, sweet and fresh, as no other refrigerator can do. This is guaranteed. It is a fact long established by all consumers of butter, that any vessel, cabinet or refrigerator, made of wood or any other substance carrying with it an odor, destroys the rich aroma contained in fresh butter; and furthermore all butter kept in the same vessel, cabinet or refrigerator with vegetables, any kind of meat, or any substance carrying a taste, becomes so tainted as to be unfit for table use, and even for culinary purposes. People may complain of poor butter, but the fault lies in the manner of keeping it.

He was admitted to the bar in 1830; he was elected to the Bench of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania in 1851 and re-elected in '54. President Buchanan appointed him Attorney General of the United States in 1857. Appearing in behalf of the Government in a disputed California land claim he achieved great success, at once establishing his reputation as a jurist. From December, 1860, to March, 1861 he was U. S. Secretary of State.

Jay Gould Happy—The Striking Operators at the Keys.

New York, August 20. Superintendent Humeston of the Western Union Company, was kept busy this morning receiving applications for the re-employment of the striking operators. About 100 male operators have been taken back since the strike ended. Sixty women went out on the strike, and of this number only 20 have been taken back. It is expected that 25 more will be taken this week. All the linemen who apply for reinstatement are rejected with the answer that their places are filled. Nearly all the branch offices opened this morning. It is expected that the company will be able to find positions for nearly all the strikers in a couple of weeks. It is emphatically denied that there is any disposition on the part of the company to punish the strikers by refusing them employment.

Was She a Pirate.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Aug. 19. An unknown schooner was reported sunk off the beach Friday evening. The affair is surrounded with considerable mystery. She was of about 300 tons burden and said to have been pursued by a steamer. Report says that both vessels were putting for shore under full sail, and when about five miles out the schooner suddenly sank and all on board were supposed to be lost. The steamer remained at the spot where the schooner sank about half an hour and then steamed away to the eastward, out to sea. The schooner is said to have carried a black flag.

Mackay's Telegraph Line.

CHICAGO, August 20. Mackay announces the early completion of a postal telegraph wire to San Francisco and connecting with all large cities. Two new cables will also be laid. The Western Union officials here admit that Mackay's new venture is the most threatening power against Western Union supremacy.

Quick Communication with Yellowstone Park.

New York, August 20. The Western Union telegraph line has been completed to Canabon Mont, 50 miles south of Lexington, on the U. P. Railroad, from which point message to Yellowstone Park will be delivered free by pony express. The President and party will be the first to use the line.

They Have Forgotten our Rebellion.

PARIS, August 20. It is affirmed that the bombardment of Hue by the French, began Saturday. Admiral Heyon, Minister of Marine and of Colonies, has ordered six gun-boats to be constructed for Tonquin. It is stated that France informed the powers that if any ships attempted to land arms in Annam they will be liable to seizure. It is believed this warning is principally leveled at the large export of arms from American ports.

A Canadian Storm.

Toronto, August 20. A terrific rain-storm, accompanied by thunder and lightning, visited the northwest part of Ontario yesterday. At Listowel the water was two feet deep in the streets. Several buildings and bridges were carried away, and the destruction to property generally is very great. At Windham the river rose 12 feet, and the railroad bridge and track were washed away. The country road was covered four feet with water. A large quantity of standing grain was destroyed.

WESTERN DISPATCHES

[PRESS DISPATCHES TO THE GAZETTE.]

The Knights Templar at Worship—The Conclave Fairly Immense—Everything Propitious for a Pleasant Week.

SAN FRANCISCO, August 20. The religious ceremony of Knights Templar at the pavilion yesterday afternoon was a terrific crush. To many almost a funeral service. Although it was announced to begin at 2 o'clock, as early as midday the crowds began gathering within the precincts of the new city hall and pavilion to see the procession of Knights to arrive. By one o'clock the crowd of people had assumed formidable proportions, comprising the arrivals of those who possessed tickets of admission and those who were obliged to content themselves with an outside view. From that hour up to 3 o'clock the mass of people became denser and denser until on both Larkin and Market streets, for a distance of a quarter of a mile, nothing could pass but the street cars, each being provided with double dummies and loaded down with new arrivals. When the doors of the pavilion were thrown open, already over 5,000 persons having tickets were massed together awaiting entrance. The moment the doors opened a rush was made, and only by the superhuman efforts on the part of a strong body of police were serious accidents prevented. Had the rush continued many young girls and even grown up people would have been crushed to death. The crowd was made to understand, through the violent howling by the police that if they would take things quietly there was plenty of time to get in before the Knights arrived. By the time the procession arrived, there were still outside between 3,000 and 4,000 persons still to go in. When the head of the column of Knights reached the entrance door the visitors were obliged to give way to permit the Knights to pass in, and when they had all done so it was found that the enormous building was then apparently filled as closely as it could be packed. Orders were immediately issued to allow none but ladies. This was only the signal for a greater crush than ever. Many ladies refused to go in alone without their husbands or escorts, others again were willing to do so and pushed themselves forward with all the strength they possessed. To make things worse, the crowd was every few minutes jostled to its centre in the endeavors to carry out fainting women through the dense living mass. When the fact was made known that many women had fainted, the crowd seemed to sober up, and concluded it would be useless to make any further attempt to gain entrance and finally dispersed.

While so many were attempting to gain an entrance, there were many who were only too glad to get out by the exit door, being overcome by the heat inside. It is estimated that there were in the pavilion nearly 8,000 persons, including about 2,000 Knights. It is the first evidence of mismanagement on the part of the committee, they having good-naturedly issued about twice as many invitations as the building could conveniently hold. The scene within the pavilion was an impressive one, not soon to be forgotten by those who had the good fortune to witness it. The Knights assembled at the Masonic Temple on Market street, and as the Grand Commandery moved up the other commanderies fell into line, marching up Market street. Shortly after the arrival of Grand Commander Dean, with the Grand Encampment, the services were ordered to commence, all the members of the Encampment being present, with about 2,000 Knights in full uniform with swords occupying the body of the pavilion. Viewed from one of the raised seats at the end of the hall, the sight was a magnificent one. The raised dais of the Grand Commander, at the extreme end, was occupied to its fullest extent by his handsomely clad escort. Facing the Grand Commander was the 2,000 Knights, with their velvet embroidered cloaks and plumed hats, swords reversed, the cross-hill level with the eyes, saluting the Grand Encampment. When the opening hymn, "Forward, Christian Soldiers," was given, started by the 2,000 Templar Knights and taken up by 6,000 other voices, the sight and impressions conveyed may be imagined but are difficult to describe.

From early this morning the city has been in a commotion, making ready for the grand procession of Knights Templar. At 8 o'clock crowds of people might be seen hurrying from all quarters toward those streets along which it was to pass, and at the present hour Montgomery and Market streets and Van Ness Avenue are lined from one end to the other with a solid line of men, women and children, determined not to be behind time. The streets are filled with Knights on their way to headquarters to the positions assigned them on Ellis, Eddy, Powell, Mason streets and other points from which they will emerge, falling into line on Market street. As the procession begins to move mingled with the sounds of music as the bands accompanying their several commanderies to take up their positions, are heard the carpenter's hammers hastily putting up stairs and benches on a level with the first windows of the buildings, on which the people can stand and see the procession to advantage as it passes by. These benches will within an hour be crowded and yielding large revenues to the enterprising contractors. At this moment the Baldwin hotel corner is the favored spot, as it is just there the knights are gathering in the greatest numbers, and the position will permit the sight-seers to see them fall into line from both Powell and Ellis streets. Half past 9 o'clock was the official hour set for the gathering of the Commanderies by the Triennial Committee, but many are already on the ground at 9 o'clock, fearing that the crush on Market street might prevent them from reaching their positions in time. Already one is enabled to form some idea of what this grand and splendid procession will be from the number who have already assembled and the magnificent spectacle they present. Looking toward the ferry, Market street is one mass of decorations, midway between the two points being the triumphal English gothic arch, decked out as was never arch before since the Pacific has been known to mankind. When to these surroundings one pictures to himself an hour or so in advance of how greatly the spectacle will be enhanced as 4,000 of the richest clothed Knights Templar in the world move along in procession, some on foot, some mounted on jet black horses, each commandery led by a band of music, the conclusion is quickly reached that the people of this city are about to witness an event never excelled in magnificence in any part of the world.

At 9:30 the streets, particularly Market, became almost impassable; the crowd is simply immense, representing not only all that San Francisco can produce of sight-seers, but some 20,000 others who have come in from the other cities and towns of the coast to witness the procession. The assemblage of Knights in each minute increasing, and though fully 4,000 seem to have taken up positions, other Commanderies are still coming, and the scene presented is momentarily increasing in interest. It was evident that the start would be delayed, owing to the difficulty of the later Commanderies getting through the streets, and 10 o'clock, the appointed hour of starting, saw them still awaiting the head of the column. It came down Market street at half past 10. In the meantime, the crowd along the streets, in the windows and doors of buildings, became greater, and those who had reserved window space, in the expectation of a great demand at the last moment, were not disappointed. Five, ten, and even twenty dollars were offered by persons for the privilege of looking through a window, and whole that two days ago would have been let for $50 could not be purchased this morning for $300.

Half-past 11 o'clock has arrived, and still no signs of a start are being made. No clear reasons are assigned for the delay, beyond the fact that it is a difficult matter to arrange the commanderies.

One o'clock has come and still they don't come; the delay is being severely commented on, but it is difficult to determine the cause of it, and it would be unfair to attach any blame to the Committee of arrangements, every member of which is, and has been, working all the morning like a Trojan. At 12 o'clock a rumor was started that the procession had begun to move, but soon proved a false alarm. As it will take two hours for the procession to pass a given point, and as at 1 o'clock it has not started, the final end of the procession will not have reached the pavilion before 3 o'clock so that any attempt to commence business to-day by the Grand Encampment will probably be abandoned. At last they are coming; the first notification of the so long expected event, was a platoon of mounted police, who rode rapidly forward to clear the way. At a quarter past 1 o'clock the head of the column moved forward led off by the police on foot, followed by buglers; then in order came Sir Reuben H. Lloyd, Grand Chaplain General, with Sir Wm. A. Gould as Chief of Staff, The California Commandery, No. 1 followed, with Governor Sir George C. Perkins at its head, mounted on a milk white horse, presented to him by Judge S. C. Denison, of Sacramento. Then came the Sacramento Commandery, preceded by their band. The Knights of this commandery presented a fine, soldierly appearance, marching with precision. The First Artillery Band came next, followed by the Chico Commandery. As the Knights pass, a continuous greeting is kept up by the spectators, given more especially to the commanderies that march in the form of a cross. The appearance of the Knights in procession is very fine.

NOTES.

Four cars of emigrants went west and three went east this morning. The west-bound express yesterday was over five hours late. Heavy train.

New goods at Nasby's. Thermometer at 7, 9, 11, 1, 3—67, 75, 78, 88.

There were not a dozen passengers who showed up on this morning's east-bound passenger train.

The funeral of the late C. W. Ward took place yesterday at 2 o'clock, and was largely attended. He was buried by the Masons.

Hosiery in silk, jute thread and cotton can be found at the dry goods store of F. Levy & Co., on Virginia street, in Reno, Nev.

Knowles & Bainbridge continue to "hold the age" on all other dealers in their kinds of goods, and if you will call and examine, you will be convinced of the fact.

That English bottled ale and Budweiser beer, to be found at Chelovick & Co.'s, will make an old man young, provided he restricts himself to one bottle per day.

Nothing has been heard from C. H. Barnett, the Truckee mill man. His indebtedness foots up between $2,000 and $3,000, and his liabilities in the neighborhood of $5,000.

The clearance sale of I. Barnett's is slaughtering the prices of summer dry goods. He allows no one who wishes to buy, to leave the store without a bundle of something in the line.

Since the advent of A. Lindley & Co. in Reno no money has been saved by sending below for groceries, for you can buy for cash cheaper than that firm than you can buy and ship from California.

To a person conversant with the business being done by the Palace Hotel in Reno, it can be easily understood why the proprietors, Perkins & White, are invariably good-natured. Their business is constantly increasing.

A bystander on the depot platform, where a baby-carriage was taken out of the express car this morning, remarked that more of those vehicles are coming to Reno than to any other town in the State—not a bad sign provided there is plenty of "meal in the chest."

There is no brewery in Nevada which has turned out more or better beer than has been manufactured by George Becker of the Pacific Brewery, during the present season. Mr. B. is not afraid to tell anyone all the ingredients used in his brewery.

THE A. O. U. W.

A Separate Beneficiary Jurisdiction Secured at Last.

For the past three months the Ancient Order of United Workmen of this jurisdiction have been making extraordinary efforts to secure a separate beneficiary jurisdiction for this Grand Lodge jurisdiction, which is composed of Nevada, Montana, Wyoming, Utah and Idaho. The special incentive for the effort is the fact that when so set apart the membership will only be liable for assessments on deaths occurring within their own jurisdiction, which is conceded by all, well informed upon the subject, to be the healthiest jurisdiction in the Union.

August 15th was fixed as the date for receiving official statements from Lodges, upon which to found an application for the separation.

From reports received by Grand Master Workman J. W. Kinsey it was ascertained that there were over 2,100 Master Workmen on the rolls of the several lodges.

The following telegrams passed between Grand Master Workman Kinsey and Supreme Master Workman Fish on the 15th, and it will be seen that this long looked for object has been accomplished:

Ogden, Utah, Aug. 15, 1883.
M. W. Fish, Supreme Master Workman A. O. U. W., East Oakland, Cal.—Nevada jurisdiction has over 2,000 Workmen in good standing, and asks for a separate beneficiary jurisdiction, subject to the laws of our Order.

J. W. Kinsey, Grand Master Workman, East Oakland, Cal., Aug. 15, 1883.

J. W. Kinsey, Grand Master Workman—Your telegram received. I fix the date of separation Aug. 15, 1883, as prayed for, subject to compliance with laws of M. W. Fish, Supreme Master Workman.

The Stage.

Several members of the Reno Guard are doing good shooting at the 200-yard range. C. H. Stoddard is good for 42 to 45. Sam Myers can keep Charley company, while Joe Dillman is crawling up every day, and is now good for 39 or 40. Fred Testand perforates the bulls-eye times enough to class him with the best shooters, and W. H. McInnis is pretty troublesome, too. Reno will turn out a first-class team next season.

His Sentence.

John Wheeler, who shot at Gaby, at Cedarville, about six weeks ago, has been sentenced to two years in the penitentiary at Folsom. Mr. Wheeler is well known here, and has many friends who sympathize with him.

LEPROSY.

The Commissioners Looking Into the Affair.

While investigating the case of Ah Shoo, the supposed leper who was committed to jail from Wadsworth, the officers were informed that a case could be found in Reno, being the same referred to in last Saturday's GAZETTE. The Wadsworth Chinaman refused to give the desired information as to where he could be found, but enough was learned to indicate that one Yung Chung, employed at the Lake House, was the man, and they have been anxious to get him away, and for that purpose state that they have notified different proprietors of the Lake House. The warning was believed to grow out of enmity the Chinese companies entertain towards him, and hence was disregarded. On Friday Dr. Waggoner, county physician, examined the suspected man, and without hesitation pronounced him a leper. The Chinaman says that a brother of the man Yung Chung died in Reno from the effects of the same disease and claim to know that for at least two generations it has afflicted his family.

WHAT LAKE SAYS.

A GAZETTE reporter interviewed Mr. Lake, proprietor of the hotel, and he says he has known the man for eight years; that during the most of that period he has been in the employ of the different lessees of his hotel, and that he stands ready to bet any man $1,000 that the Chinaman has not got the disease. Mr. Lake says he is one of the cleanest and best cooks on the coast, but that during the hot months the heat in the kitchen has produced a slight swelling of the hands and feet, which immediately disappeared when cool weather set in. He says to his certain knowledge the Chinaman—hands, body and limbs—is as clean and free from ulcerations or sores as any man; that he has not now, nor ever did have, any breaking out of any kind, further than the swelling spoken of. Mr. Lake has discharged the man, but to satisfy himself, he has had Dr. Hogan examine the Chinaman, and here is

HIS OPINION.

RENO, Nev., Aug. 20, 1883.
M. C. LAKE—DEAR SIR: I have carefully examined the Chinaman, Sam, whom you sent to me, who is reported to have leprosy. While it is impossible for me to say that his disease is not of a form called leprosy, it is certain that it is not that much dreaded form which is now said to be so prevalent in the Sandwich Islands. Very different diseases have been described and called leprosy. While some of these are very deadly and almost beyond the hope of remedial measures, others, called by the same name, are entirely without danger either to the person afflicted or to others who may be associated with him, as it is impossible to convey the disease from one person to another in any manner whatever. If the Chinaman, Sam, has the disease at all, it is certainly in this milder form, and no person need have the least fear that he either has taken or can take the disease from him. Now, has he the disease in any form? As I have already said, it is impossible for me, without further examination, to give a definite answer, but my opinion at this time is, that he has no form of the disease.

Respectfully yours, etc.,

H. H. HOGAN, M. D.

The Chinese testimony is as conflicting as the opinions of the physicians. But to say the least, it is a case that would seem to demand the closest scrutiny, and one for the County Commissioners to attend to promptly. Sheriff Emmitt has been instructed by the Commissioners to go to San Francisco and ascertain what U. S. Consul Bee is willing to do towards getting the Wadsworth leper and this Chinaman out of the county. Sheriff Emmitt will leave on his mission in the morning.

Sure, Father, Sure.

The finest drink known in the present age is C. & C.'s celebrated crunk beer. It is harmless and pleasant. Babies like it, and as between crunk beer and milk, the crunk is preferred. Old men, young men, the stately matron and blushing maiden all take it; they like it, and Charley Colburn has it in any quantity, from a bottle to a case. Charley will be here next week. It will knock the bottom out of an emigrant trunk at 200 yards and sure knocking enough at a mile. It drives away the blues and makes the old young. Crunk beer is the coming drink, sure.

The White Plains Well.

W. C. Chapin, the superintendent of the artesian well work at White Plains, went below yesterday. He says the well is going down steadily again, and is at the 1,400-foot level. He has been detained by putting in an inclosure 54 inches in diameter down 1,200 feet, to shut out the salt water that comes in at 40 feet and gets to a boiling heat at the bottom. The casing weighs nine tons, and is one of the longest on record. It was a big job to get the hole true and the pipe in.

A true iron machine, beneficial to the young as well as to those who suffer from dyspepsia, etc., is Brown's Iron Bitters.

Will Hope be Finished.

NEAR THE DARK VALLEY.

Hon. C. S. Varian's Narrow Escape from Drowning in the Truckee River.

Hon. C. S. Varian had a narrow escape from drowning yesterday, while bathing in the river just below Beck's dam. The river was much higher than usual. Mr. Varian had swam across the "whirlpool" immediately below the apron of the dam twice, and undertook to make it the third time, when he was caught by the strong under-current at the south end of the dam and pitched about in a reckless sort of way by the foaming waters. After a fierce struggle of several minutes his right foot struck a boulder which enabled him to throw himself without the bounds of the suction. He reached shallow water in the last stages of exhaustion, and said he did not think he could have possibly successfully battled with the underflow over three or four seconds longer. He called to those who were in the river with him for help, but the roar of the waters drowned his voice so that he could not be understood. As he was known to be one of the best swimmers in town no one started to his assistance until he was well nigh exhausted, but fortunately he succeeded in "padding his own canoe" to a safe harbor without help. When the river is low there is no danger, but when at the stage it was yesterday there is one ugly hole and bathers should steer clear of it. Ropes will be stretched to-day, however, so that anyone getting into it can have a support to assist them. Varian thinks the old-fashioned bath-tub will answer his purpose in the future, and that there may be something in the old doctrine of special judgments touching the wickedness of Sabbath bathing, hunting, etc., so often pumped into the minds of children by pious mothers in years gone by.

A PLEASANT PICNIC.

A Large Party of Ladies Visit the Terminus of the N. & O.

Last Saturday morning a party of about 25, mostly ladies, took the Nevada & Oregon Narrow Gauge for Oneida, in Long Valley, for a day's recreation, and from what a GAZETTE reporter overheard while they were getting off the train on their return, they must have really had a day of unalloyed pleasure. The following are the names of the party: Mesdames J. H. Hussey, George Cutting, J. H. Snodgrass, Louis F. Dean, R. Prana, M. L. Dixon and granddaughter, J. A. Williams, B. F. Leete and son, W. D. Wagar, T. F. Laycock, F. McRae, W. Shaff and child, W. F. Berry and child, Sarah Robinet, Elda Simpson and two children, R. W. White, Misses Emily Cutting, Alice Weidman of Stockton, Cal.; Ida E. Moran, Virginia City; Emma Dean, and Mr. Snodgrass and the photographer, F. A. O'Connell. The train was stopped at the most picturesque points on the road sufficiently long to allow Mr. Cook to take photographic views. The day was voted by all to have been pleasantly and profitably passed, and it is understood that similar excursions are contemplated before the trains stop running. Much credit is due Conductor Kendall and Engineer McNeely for having made the excursion a complete success.

Dalton's Death.

News was received here yesterday announcing the death of Modesto, California, of Peter Dalton, who formerly kept a restaurant here.

THE KNIGHTS AT PRAYER.

Interesting and Appropriate Religious Services at the Conclave.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 19.

Religious worship, like all other affairs of this world, depends largely upon its accessories for its hold on the people. The vast piles of architecture that have been erected, the costly paintings that adorn them, the fine music, the dim and mysterious atmosphere thrown through vaulted chapels and pillared aisles, the tombs of great or noble men that fill the floor, all tend to fill the minds of those who visit them with solemnity and awe. The measured sentences, and rounded inflections of the preacher or priest discarding upon the three great questions: Whence came I? Whither am I going? and what will be my future state, add to these impressions and lead men to believe that they are all that is worth living for. Nothing could be arranged that would more effectively cater to this feeling, in the impressive mind, than the services at the Pavilion to-day. The vast room was decorated with crosses and banners of the religious Order of Knights Templar. Crosses of all designs adorn the walls, and large pictures of sacred subjects, painted for the occasion, cover the ceiling and walls. The galleries are full of ladies, the Grand Commandery of America occupies a place on the platform to the rear of the minister. Long lines of Knights in full regalia, file in with swords reversed, their white plumes forming a rich contrast with their black regalia. They step to the beat of a single drum, and remain standing with swords reversed, the hilt hiding the eyes, while the processional hymn "Onward Christian Soldier" is given. The great organ fills the remotest corner of the large Pavilion with its rich and swelling notes, which rise and fall in stately numbers to the grand chorus. A voluntary worthy of Theodore Thomas follows, and the very Eminent Grand Prelate gives a brief exhortation. All the Knights kneel, depositing their chapeaux on the floor, and recite the confessional, after which the Bishop of California administers absolution. After rising, the choir chants the Lord's prayer and other portions of the Litany. The Templars' Litany and general intercession follow, when the hymn "The Rising God" forsakes the Tomb, fills the hall with the solemn notes of the organ and the human voice combined. Very Eminent Sir Clinton Locke, D. D., Grand Prelate of the Grand Encampment of the United States, delivered a brief but appropriate sermon. The hymn, "Hark! Hark! My Soul, Angeline Songs are Swelling," was sung with the great congregation standing, and Mr. Rev. Kip pronounced the Apostolic benediction. The choir sang "Jerusalem, my happy home," as the room was being emptied.

A MURDER IN SAN FRANCISCO.

A Wealthy San Francisco Man Murdered in His Own House.

An evident murder of a rich San Francisco real estate dealer was unearthed in San Francisco last Saturday. On Monday the deceased, whose name is Nicholas Skerritt, was seen to enter a house, No. 1129, Ellis street, in company with three men, who pretended to want to buy it, and subsequently the man, who claimed to be from Nevada, were seen to leave the premises by themselves, which, however, excited no suspicion at the time. Last Saturday, a party who desired to rent, visited the premises, and from the stench, became convinced that a crime had been committed, and at once reported to the police, who, upon an examination, discovered in a closet the fast decaying remains of the owner, who, it was thought, was in a moribund business; two telegrams during the week having been received from there, over Skerritt's signature, saying that he was engaged in selling some property, and would not return for several days. The deceased was about 40 years old, and had no relatives in the city, except a young nephew. Detectives have been employed to work the case up.

Rather Late.

The delayed west bound train yesterday was a double header and consisted of nine coaches and five mail, baggage and express cars, and contained the Grand Commanderies of Rhode Island and Massachusetts, besides Knights from Michigan, Washington, New Jersey, Kansas, Virginia, Ohio and a few from other States.

For cheap Drugs, Toilet Articles, Patent Medicines, Perfumery, etc., call at John F. Myers' Drug Store, Virginia street, next to Barnette's.

Drive Down the Nails.

The sidewalks in front of many places of business in Reno are in a wretched condition, the spikes standing a half an inch high, and hardly a day passes that some one's shoe is not torn and ruined by these protruding nails. Last week one lady had two pairs of shoes destroyed by them. Drive them down.

Notice.

Members of Riverside Lodge, No. 20, A. O. U. W., are hereby notified to meet at Odd Fellows' Hall, corner Second and Virginia streets, tomorrow (Tuesday) evening, at 8 o'clock sharp.

A. C. BRAGG, M. W. J. F. CONDON, Recorder.

Mrs. Sargent at the German Court Mrs. A. A. Sargent, in a letter from Berlin to a friend in Nevada City, Cal., says of a call she made upon the Empress: "Her majesty surprised me by asking me about my daughter Lizzie. She heard that Lizzie began the study of Medicine in California, and was now continuing it at Zurich. 'We are much interested in Medicine,' the Empress added, and then spoke of the civil war in America and the Franco-Prussian war, saying that the German had gained much valuable information from the Americans as to the treatment of the sick and wounded soldiers, which was put to good use in their last war."
